Dedication

MR. GARY SKEWES

The class of 1972 dedicates this yearbook to Mr. Gary Skewes.

Besides teaching very interesting history classes, Mr. Skewes has been Student Council Advisor for 2 years and our Class Advisor 2 years. He's been very patient and cooperative with our class and so for everything - we thank him.

"I am a part of all that I have met"
- Tennyson -

Within this yearbook we hope to share with you ...

the times filled with enthusiasm

the times filled with learning

the times filled with fun

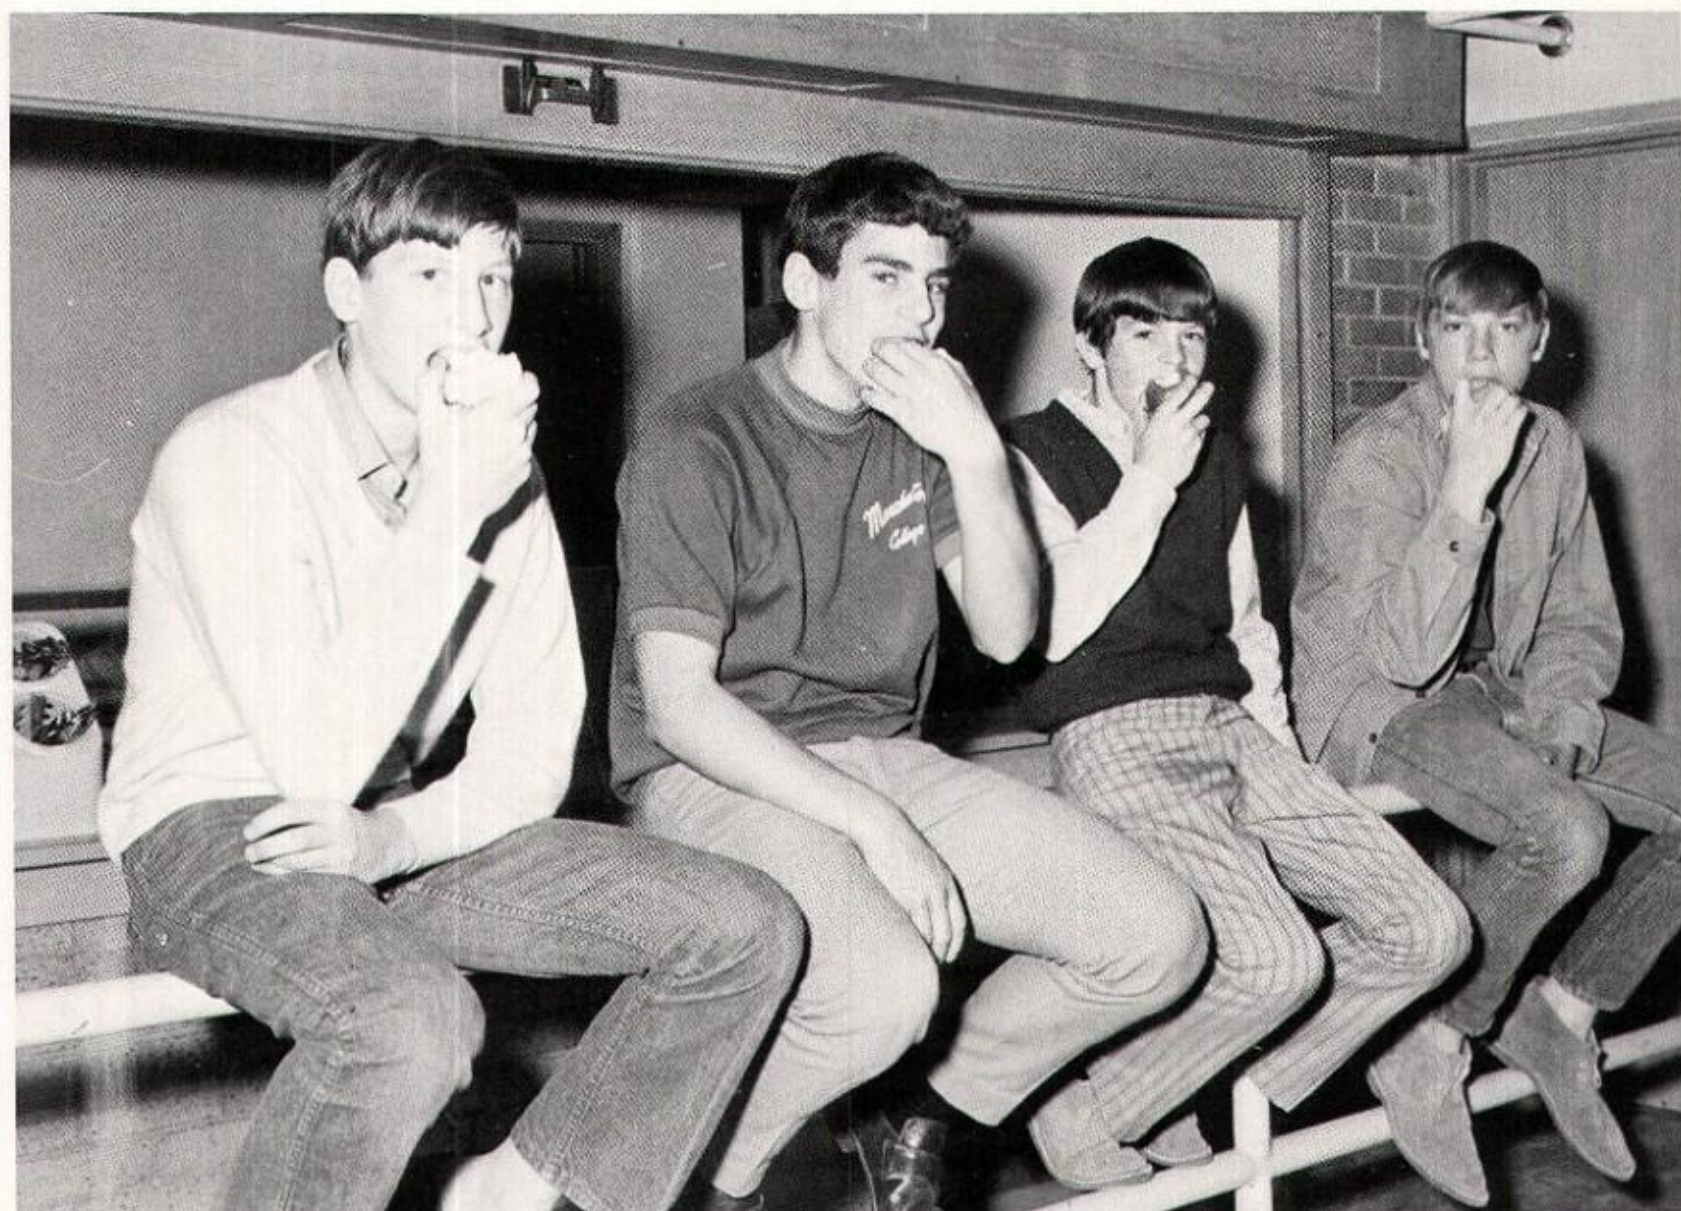

and the times filled with peacefulness

that are part of what we've met along the way at Gettysburg High.

We have found the meaning of friendship ...
the joy of sharing
the fun of being together
and the need for laughter.

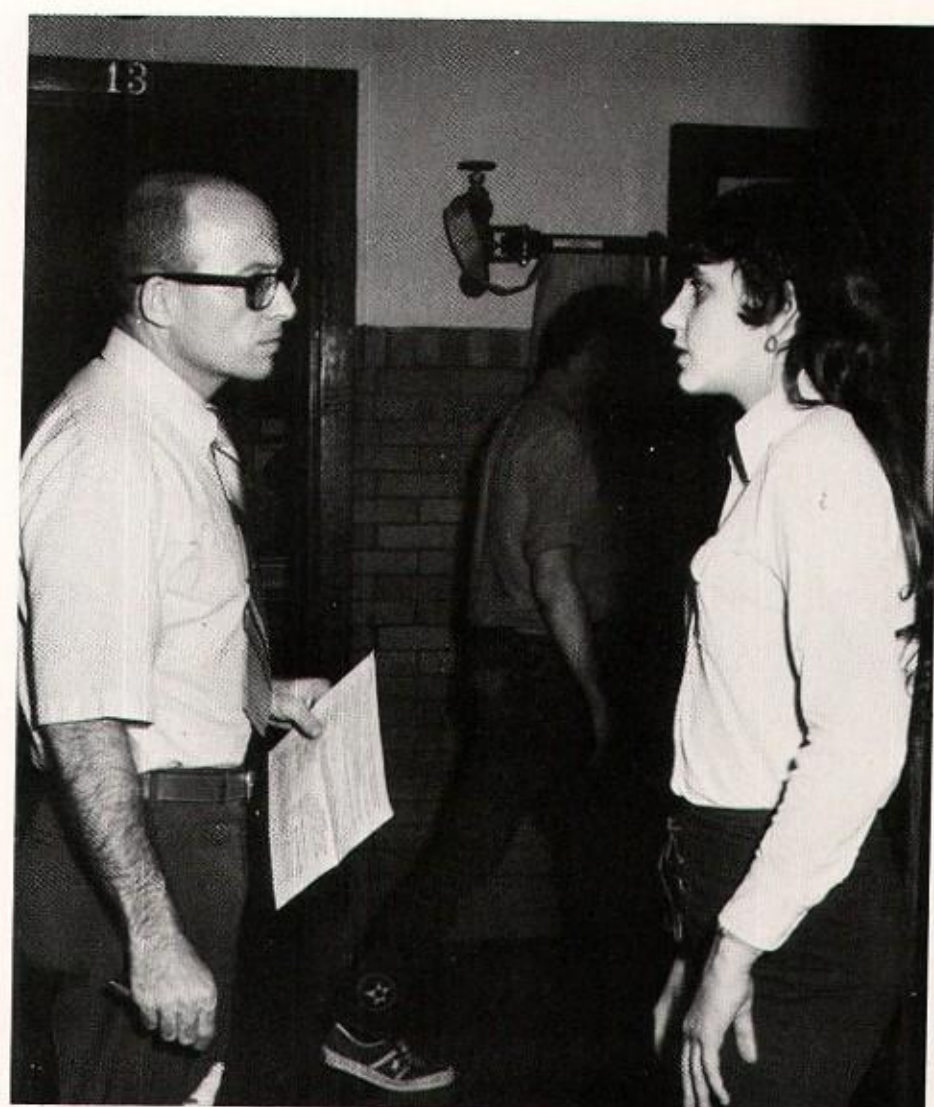

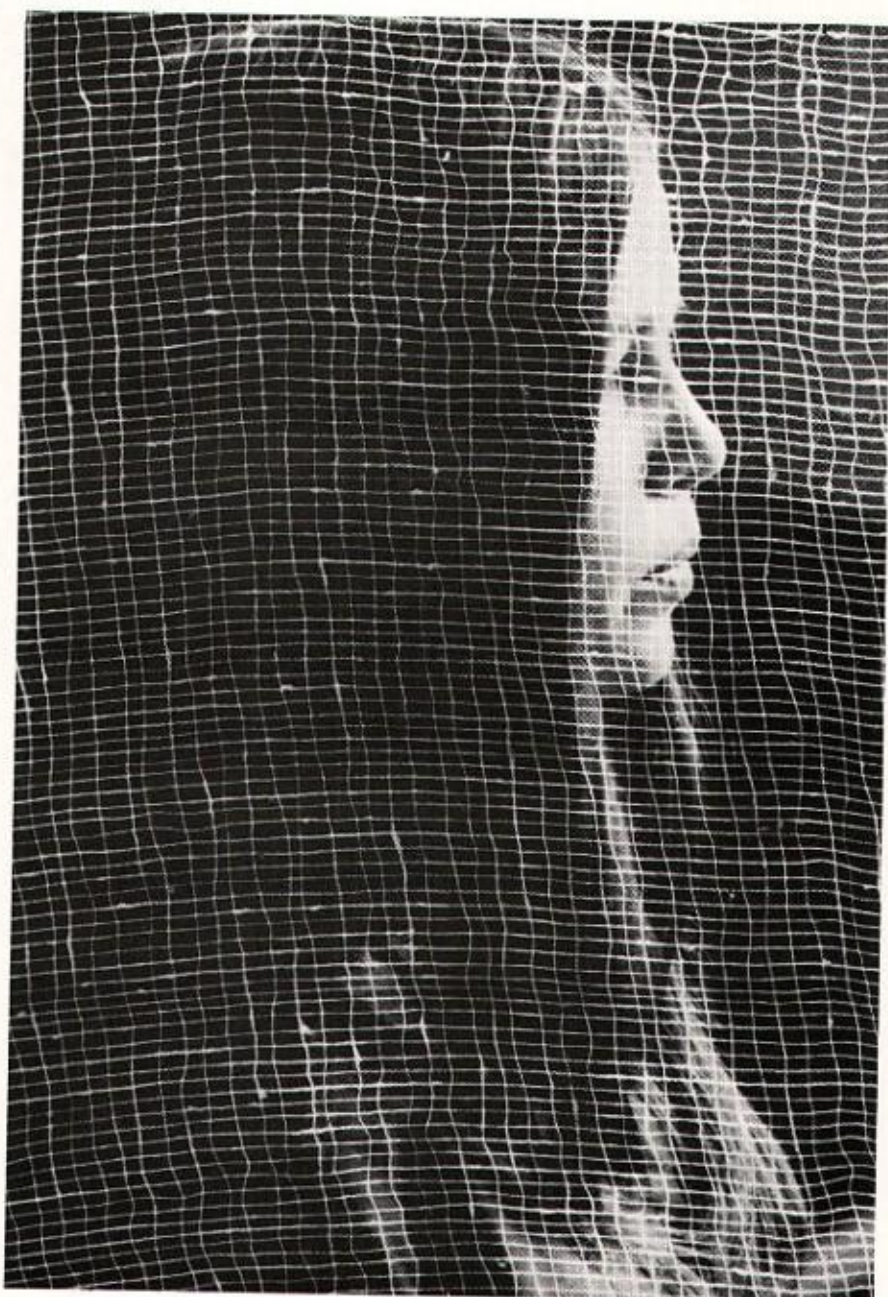

The goals set for our learning ...

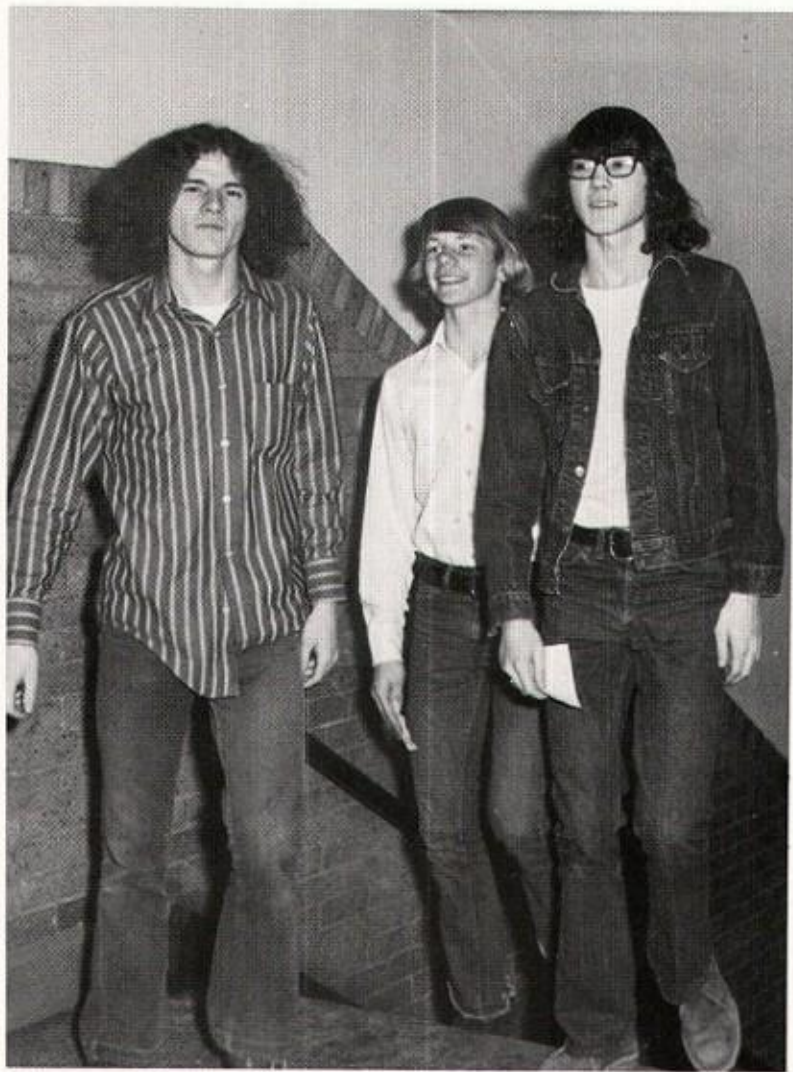

to improve our minds

to change our attitudes

to broaden our world

We meet so many challenges.

Have you found how large our classrooms are?

The boundaries can extend beyond ... the formal rows of wooden desks
to the baselines of a playfield
to the wooden floor of a raised stage
to our waiting world outside.

Our lives are not stationary ...

we move ahead

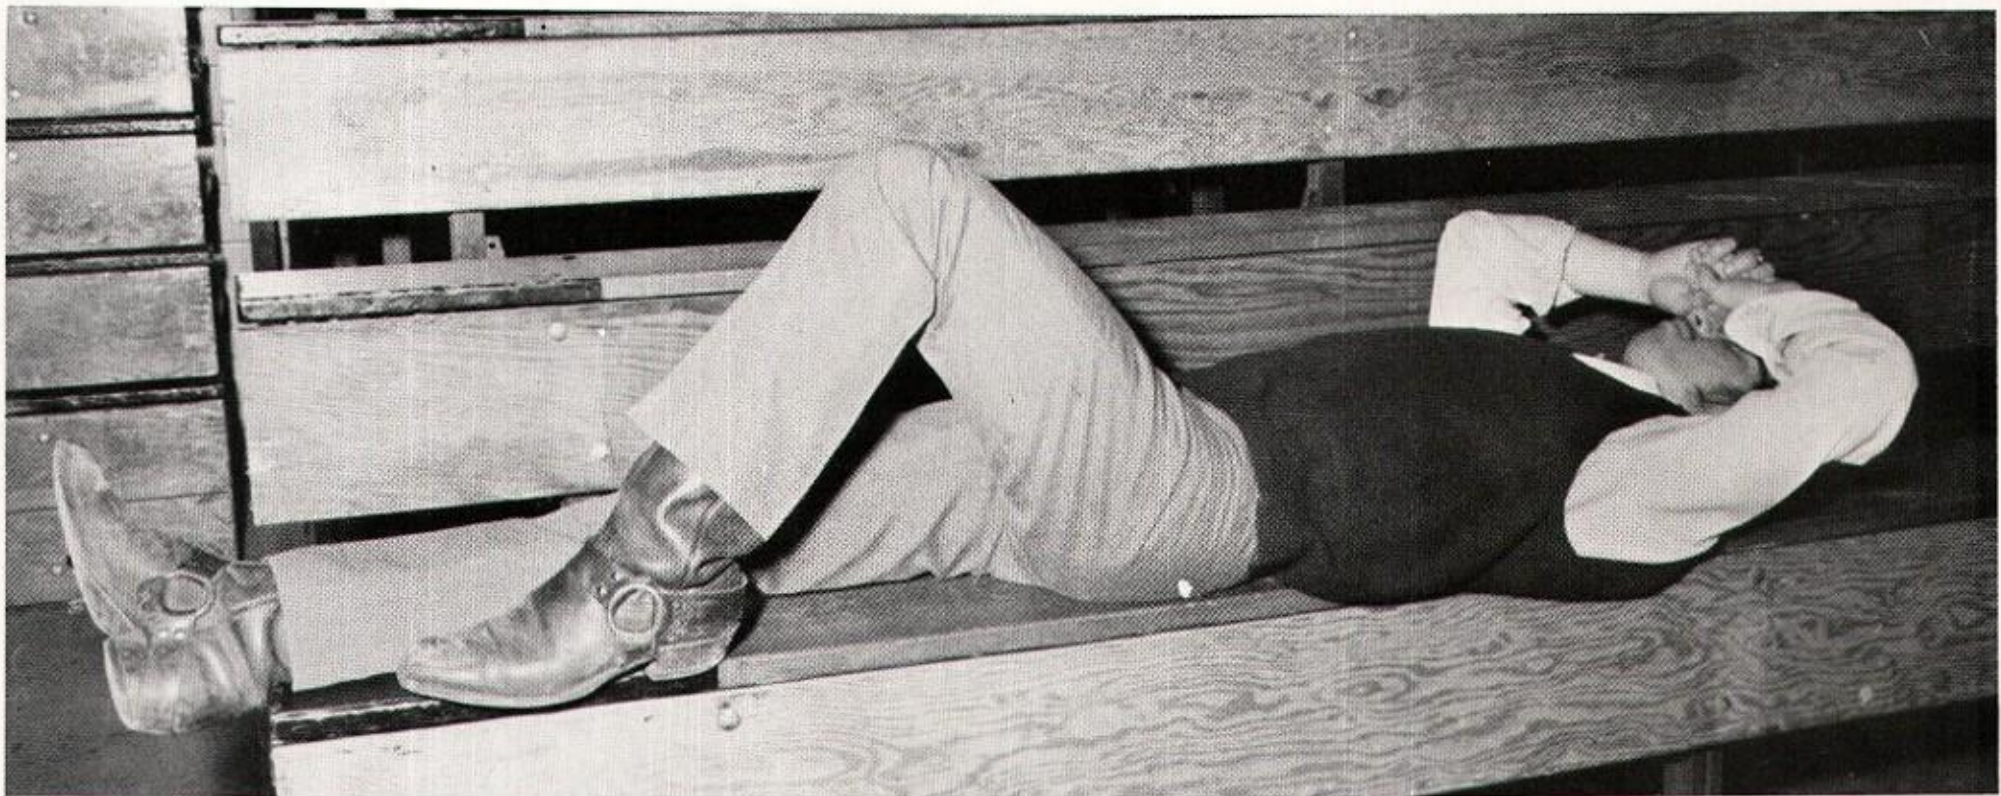

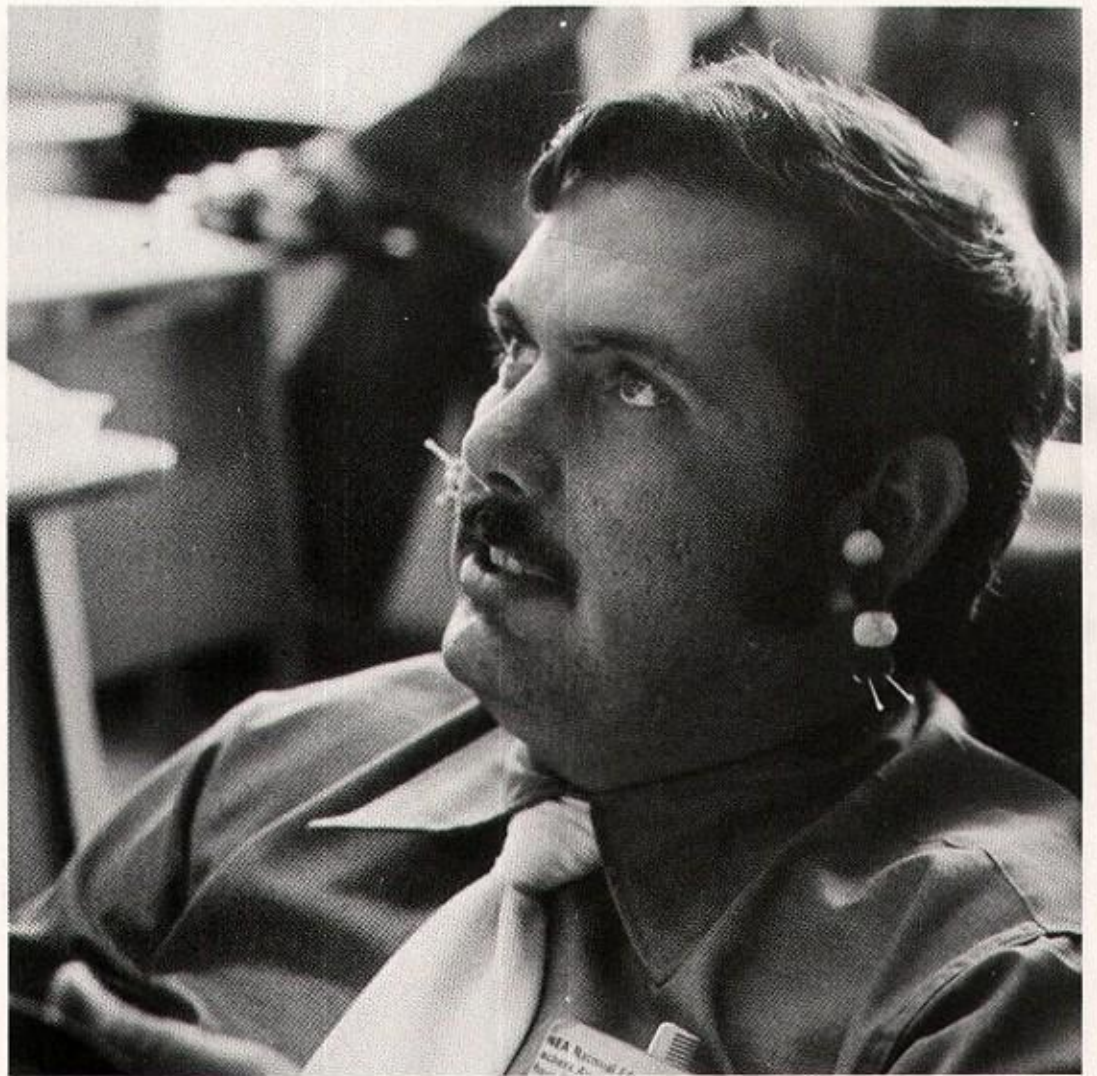

meeting people

using opportunities

reflecting on our learnings

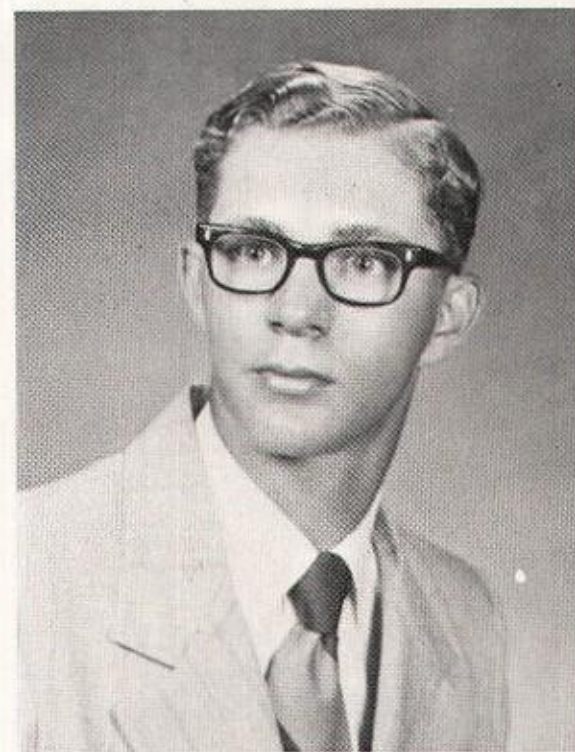

Knowing that we are all a part of what we have met.

Backwoods Romeo

Presented by the Senior Class

Romeo Montague lived as a hermit unaware of an opposite sex. This all changed when Larry McNeil and Rex Simonds invited him to visit. The McNeil household, abounding with women, soon enlightened Romeo on the wiles and ways of the feminine world.

Star!

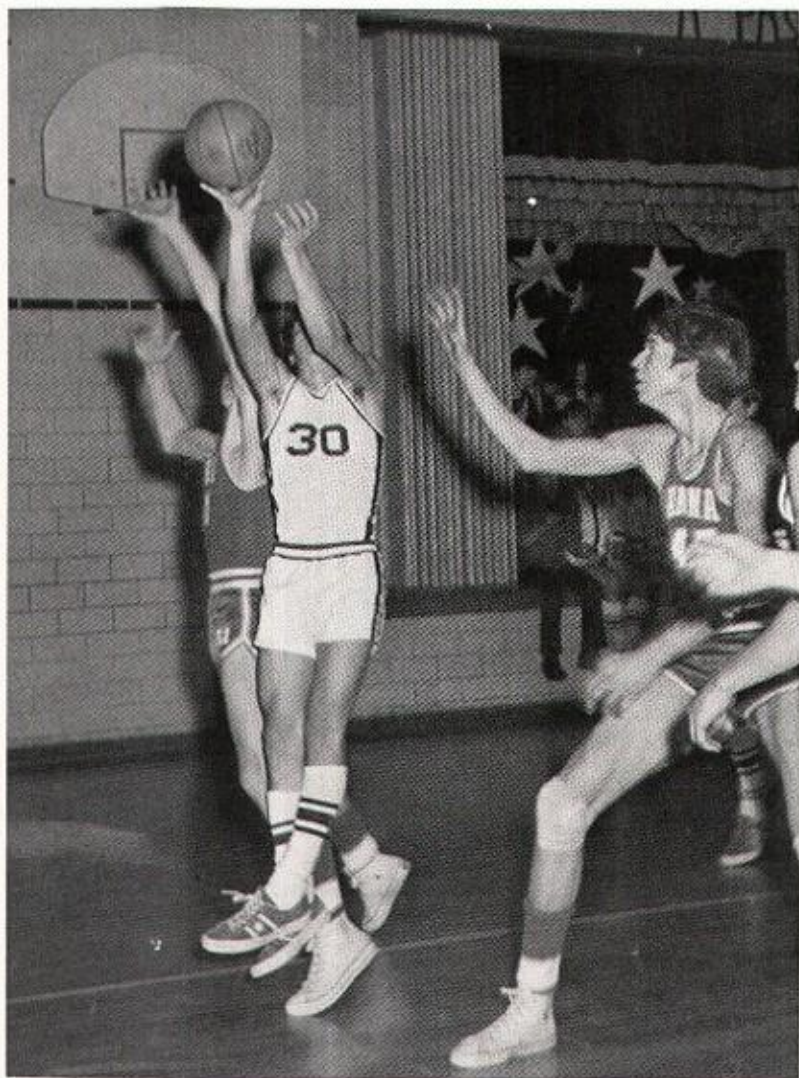

Wait for me, guys!

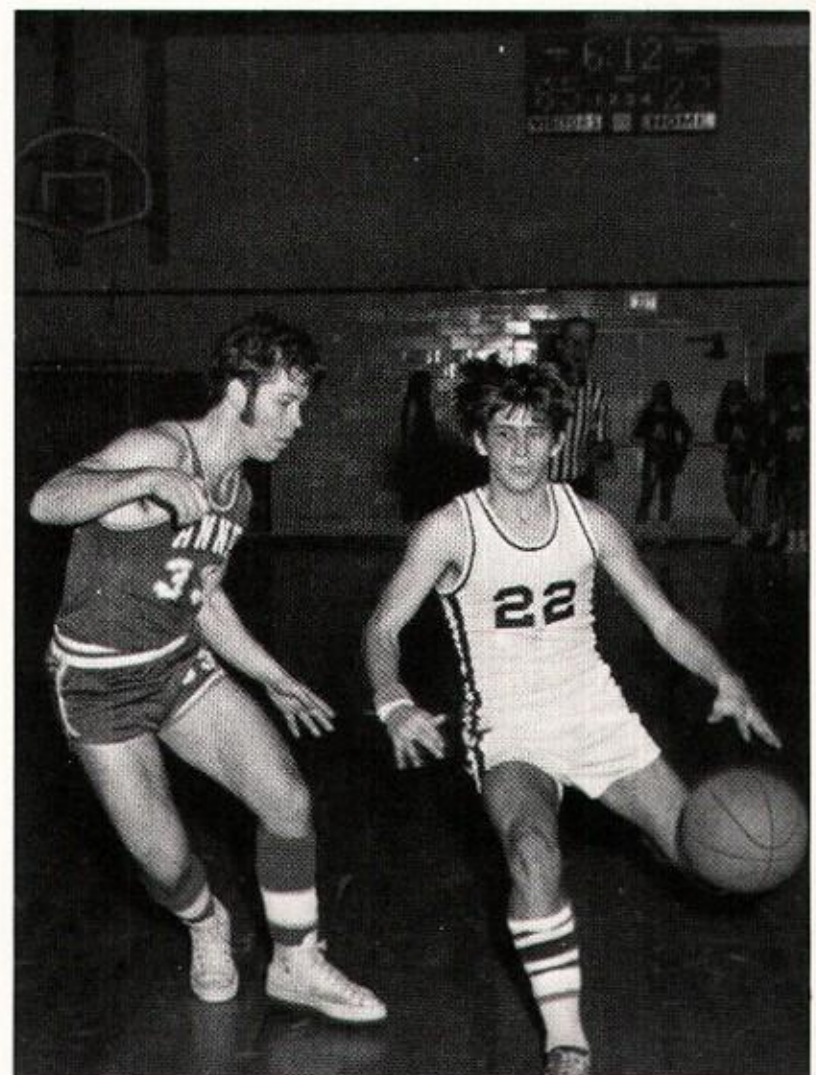

You tell 'em, Coach!

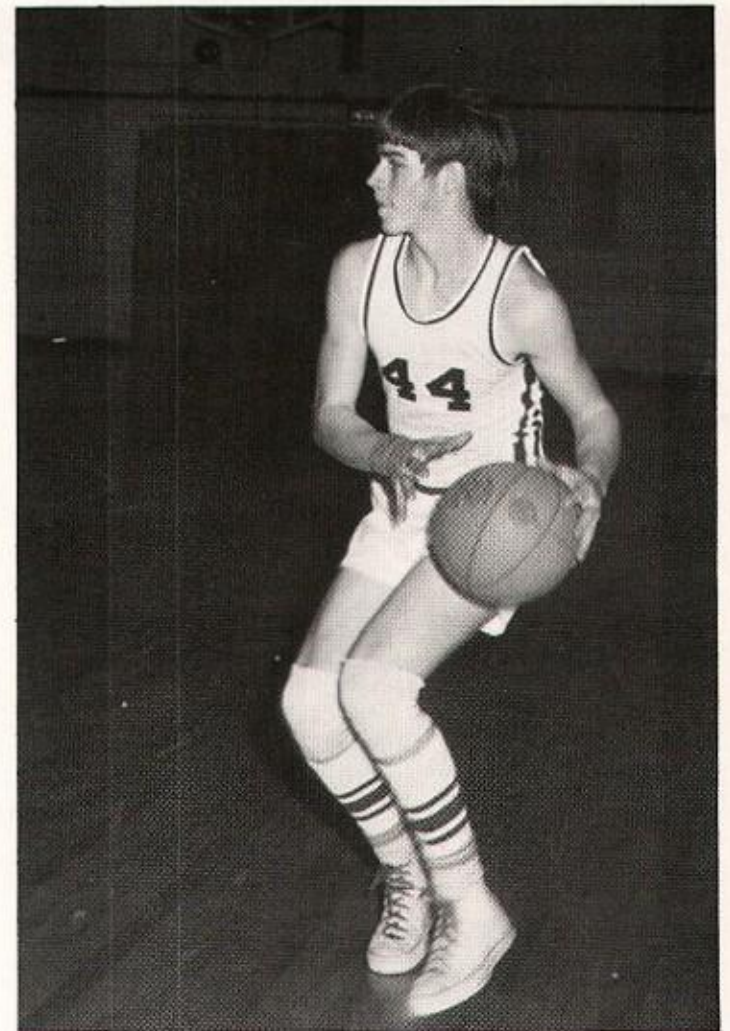

Hope Bob can see the basket, better than we can see him.

Lon, there's nothing to be afraid of!

The Cardinal's didn't have what you would call a winning season this year. There could be many reasons - a new coach, only one returning letterman, and few six-foot guys! Even though our season left something to be desired, we cannot ignore the performance each man gave each game! Really, that is the true measure of the game.

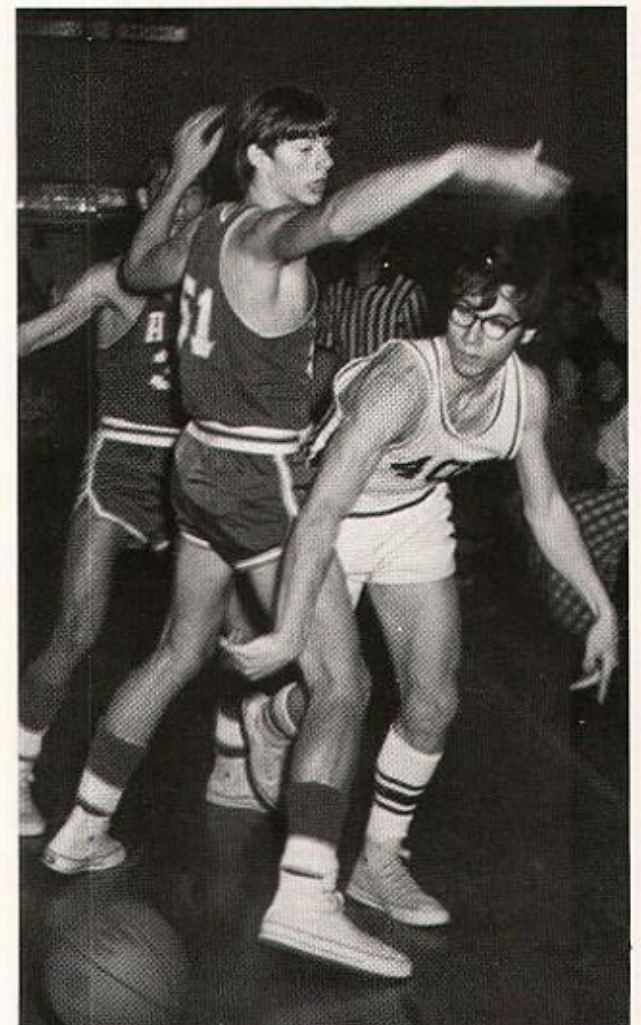

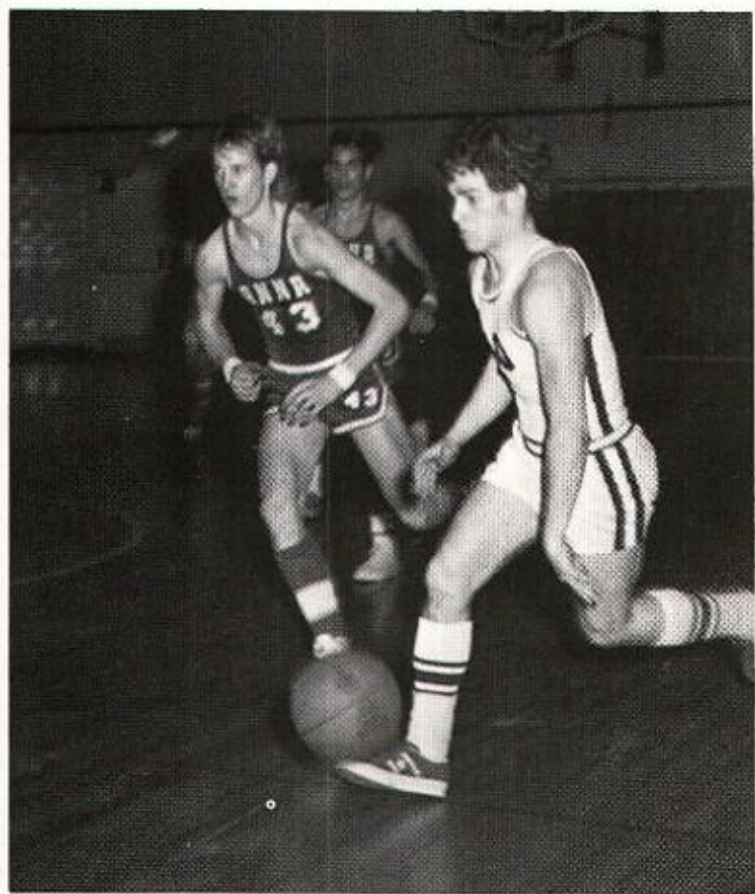

It's mine, you can't have it!

Craig knows what to do, Mark.

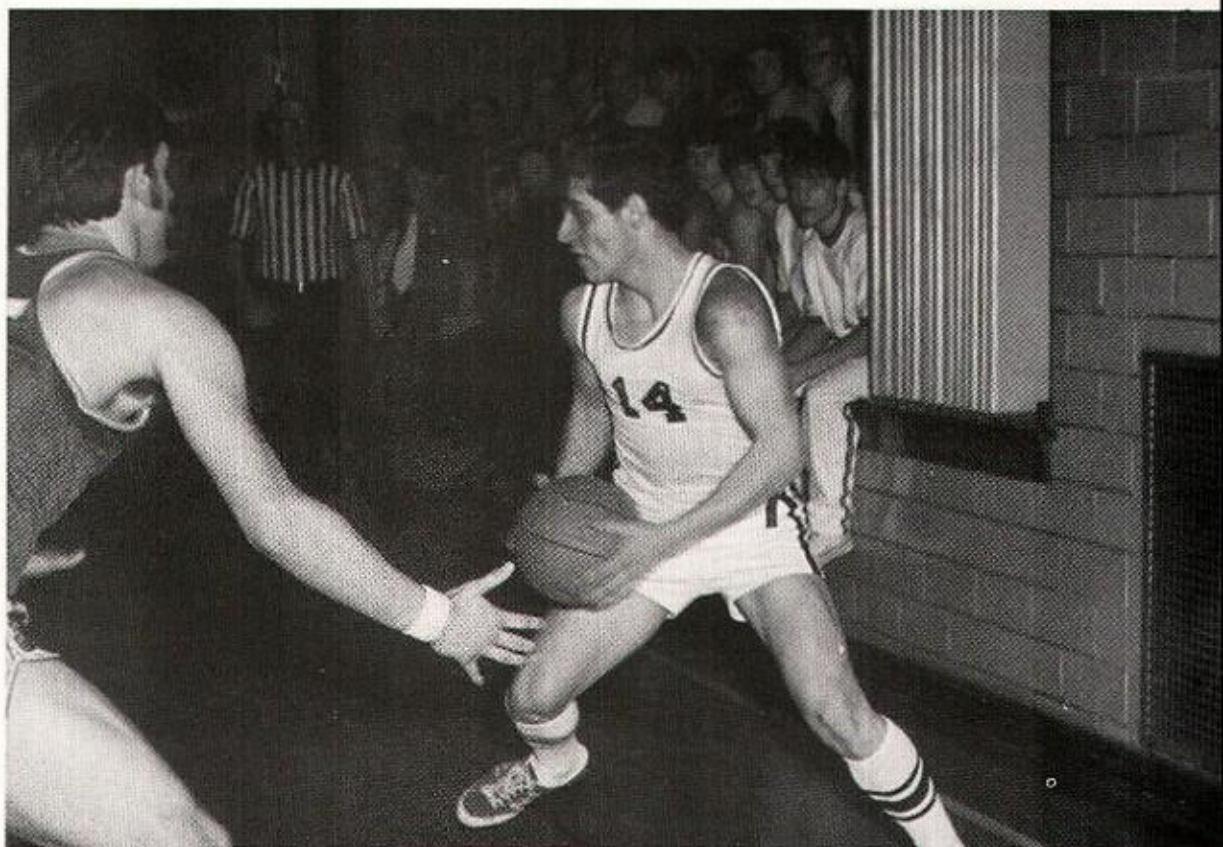

That's it Ed, behind them.

Dribble it, don't kick it!

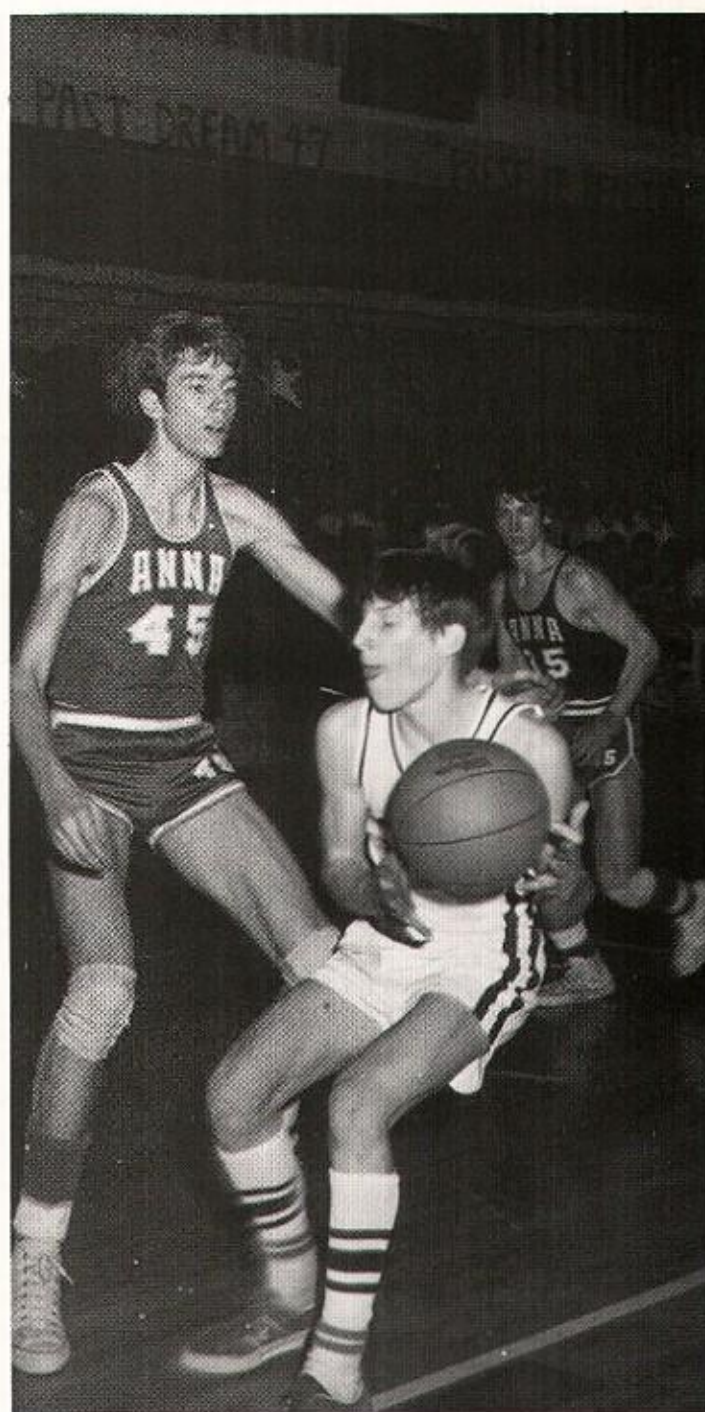

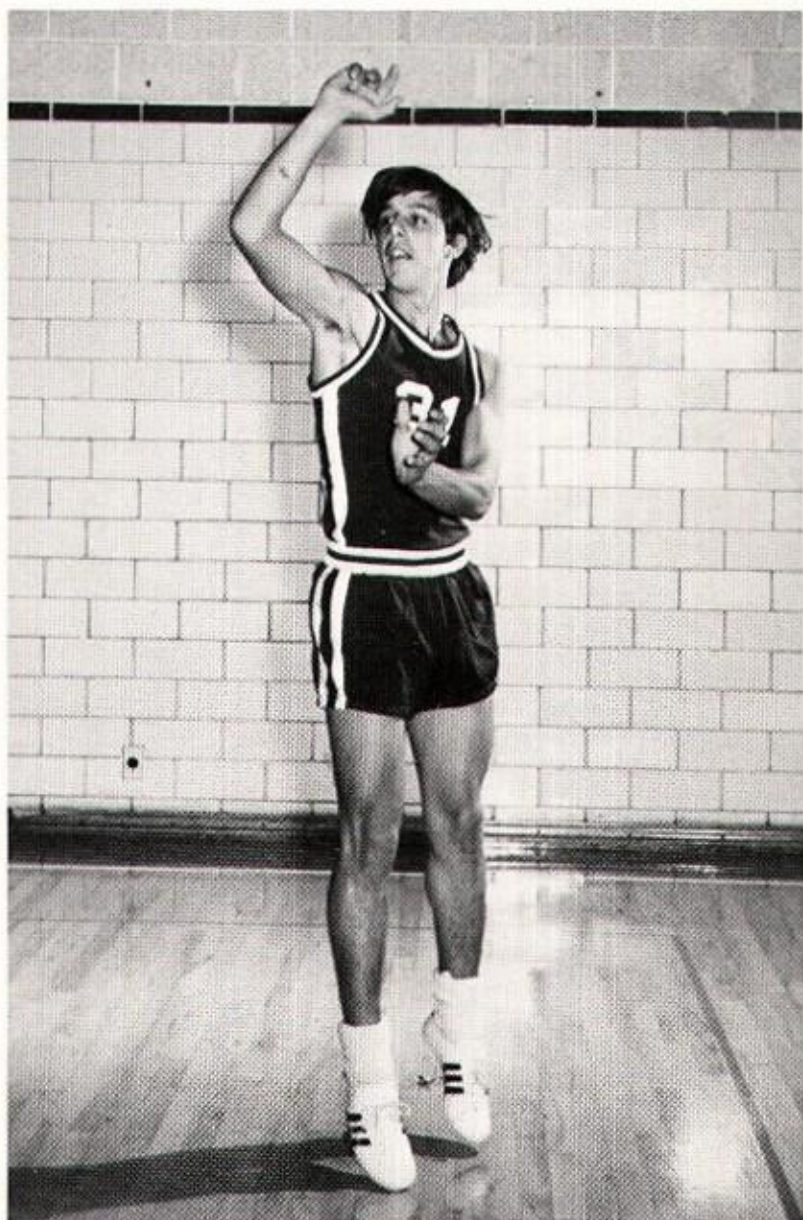

Which way do I go?

It's my ball!

Craig's up for two.

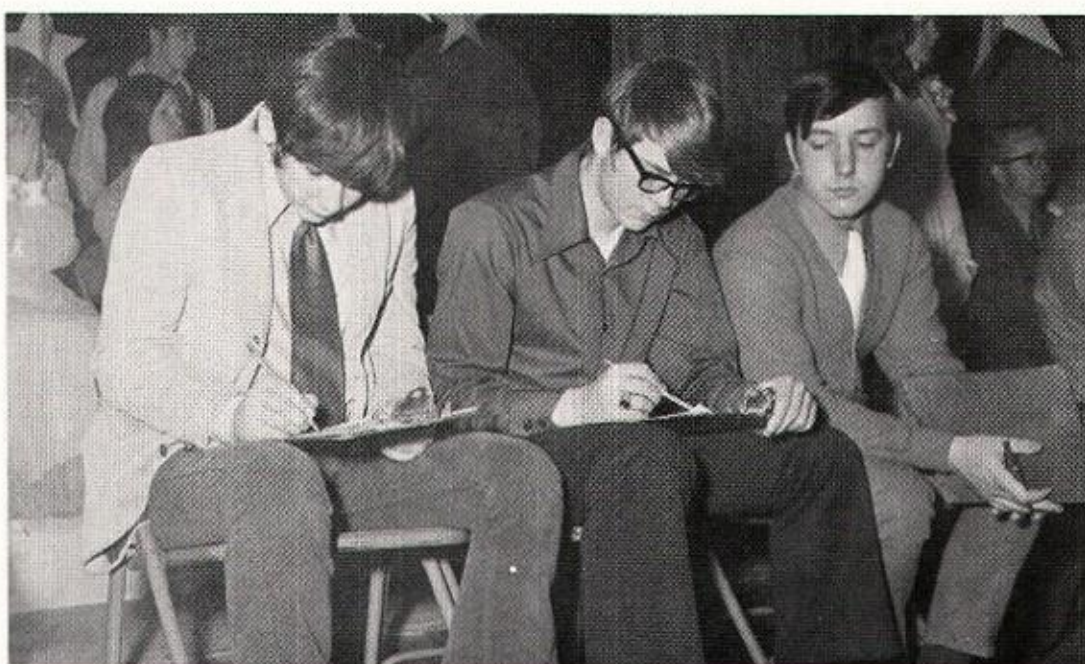

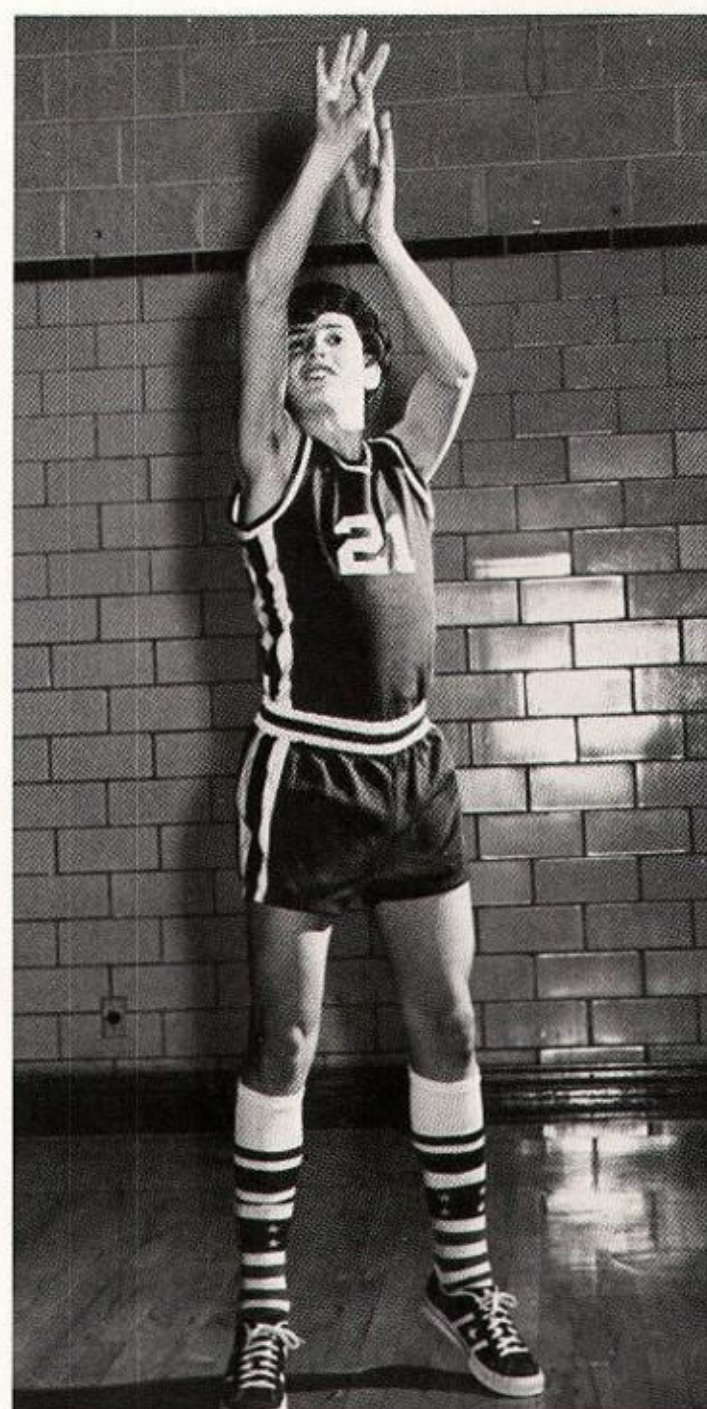

Ballet, anyone?

They did all they could to help our score!

Come on guys, count it over!

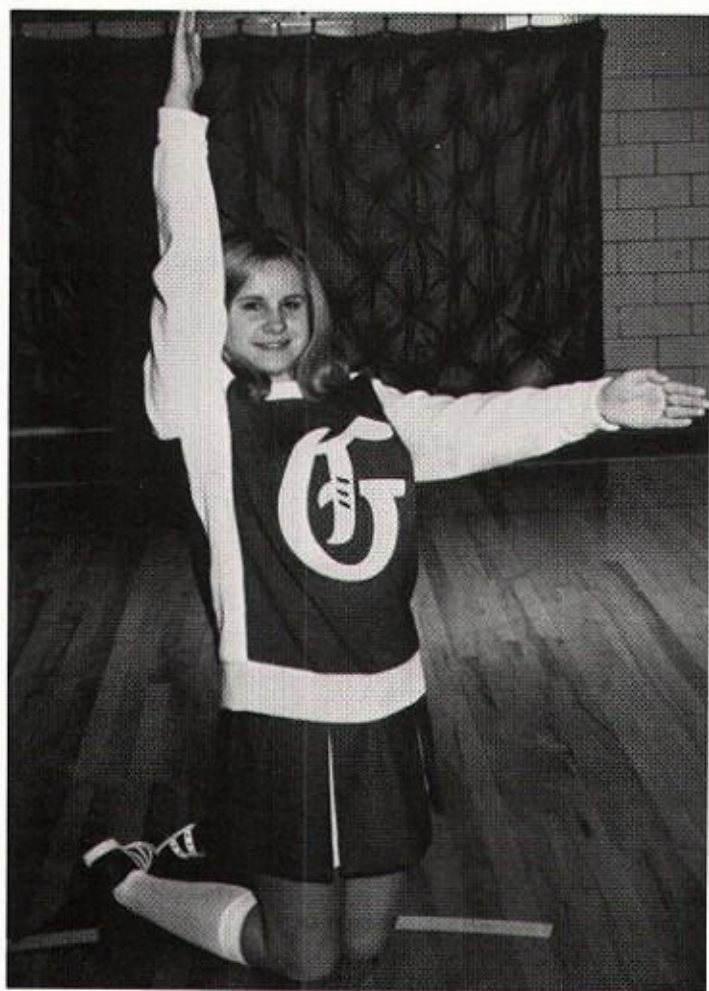

I know I'm great! I know I'm great!
